

Arlen David Green, D.O.

12555 Garden Grove Blvd., Ste. 506 Garden Grove, CA 92843

(714) 462-6014

Info@onehealthmedical.net

Education:

Loma Linda University medical Center, Residency Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, 7/05-6/08

Loma Linda University Medical Center, Internal Medicine internship, 2004-2005

Midwestern University, Arizona College of Osteopathic Medicine, D.O. 2000-2004

San Diego State University, B.S. Kinesiology/Biomechanics 1996-2000

Experience:

One Health Medical 2020-Present

- Perform consultations for musculoskeletal disorders
- Perform interventional spine procedures including LESIs, CESIs, Facet injections, MBBs, RFNs, SI joint injections, PRP injections.
- General musculoskeletal medicine including peripheral joint injections, occipital nerve blocks, and TPIs

Arlen Green D.O. Corp. 07/09-Present

- Perform consultations for musculoskeletal disorders
- Perform interventional spine procedures including LESIs, CESIs, Facet injections, MBBs, RFNs, SI joint injections
- General musculoskeletal medicine including peripheral joint injections, occipital nerve blocks, and TPIs

Arizona Pain Treatment Center/Pain-MDs 07/08-06-09

- Perform interventional spine procedures including LESIs, CESIs, Facet injections, MBBs, RFNs, SI joint injections.
- Mentorship with a Board Certified Pain Management physician to learn procedures including vertebroplasties, SCS trials, and Percutaneous Disc Decompression.
- General musculoskeletal medicine including peripheral joint injections, occipital nerve blocks, and TPIs

Loma Linda University Medical Center, Residency Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation:

- 15 months of in-patient rehabilitation including stroke, spinal cord injury, traumatic brain injury, and post-operative orthopedic rehabilitation. This includes 3 months of post-hospital outpatient follow-up involving spasticity management with Botox injections and intrathecal baclofen.

- 11 months of out-patient musculoskeletal medicine, sports medicine, and pain management training in interventional spine procedures with fluoroscopy, peripheral joint injections, trigger point injections, and EMG/NCS.

Loma Linda University VA Hospital, Emergency Department Physician, 11/06-1/08

- Intubation and ACLS certified.

Loma Linda University Medical Center, Internal Medicine Internship, 2004-2005

- 6 months of in-patient general internal medicine, 1 month of CCU, 5 months of out-patient including a 1-month elective in sports medicine.

Awards:

National Deans List, Arizona College of Osteopathic Medicine, 2001-2001

Lectures:

Comprehensive EMG/NCS lecture series
Sacro-Iliac Joint Dysfunction
Whiplash Injury to the Cervical Spine
Exercises for Back pain
Manipulation as a Therapeutic Modality
Shoulder Osteology and Arthrology
Lymphedema
Burn injury Rehabilitation

Case Report:

Pure Sensory Axonal Polyneuropathy in a Patient with Chronic Hepatitis C

Memberships:

AAP, AAPM&R, PASSOR

Professional Interests:

EMG/NCS
Interventional Spine Procedures
General Musculoskeletal Medicine

Other Interests:

Golf, Tennis, Skiing, Hiking