

A modern-day Renaissance man in the medical realm, Dr. Petros' highest professional calling has hailed from pain medicine. Allied Pain & Spine Institute (APSI), an emblem of modernized pain management, was established by Dr. Petros to become the gold standard in conservative and minimally-invasive pain care. With dynamic leadership and a talented multidisciplinary team, APSI has gained a preeminent position in the proficient diagnosis and tailored treatment of problems related to spine and sports, degenerative conditions, and injuries. APSI (in alliance with Trinity Surgery Center) offers the most cutting-edge and evidence-based pain solutions available today. Comprehensive consultations and multi-faceted treatment are provided for all acute and chronic musculoskeletal conditions. Superior patient outcomes and improvements in quality of life are crafted, case by case, through medication optimization, customized rehabilitation, pain psychology, spinal diagnostic and therapeutic procedures, neuromodulation, peripheral injections (for joint, nerve, and soft tissue), immersive virtual reality, and regenerative orthopedic techniques.
