

Mosen Defrawy M.D.

Curriculum Vitae

(949)244-5466
MDefrawy@gmail.com

---

EDUCATION

June 1980-
May 1985      University of Maryland School of Medicine
Doctor of Medicine (MD)
Took advanced course work in clinical psychology and psychiatry.

June 1976-
June 1980      University of Maryland College Park
Bachelor of Science (BS)
BS. with honors, double in Biochemistry and Business Management.
Placed on Dean's list every semester throughout undergraduate education.

---

TRAINING

June 1985-
June 1987      Greater Baltimore Medical Center
PGY 1 & 2 (Post Graduate Year 1 & 2)

July 1989-
July 1990      Kaiser Permanente Hospital, Oakland, CA
PGY 3

---

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

August 2020-
Current      SoCal Urgent Care, Anaheim, CA
Medical Supervisor, Physician, Urgent Care department

August 2015-
August 2020      Heritage Medical Group, Victorville, CA
Physician, Urgent Care department

October 2012-
August 2020      Tracy Zweig Associates, Ventura, CA
(Locum)

August 2012-
August 2020      HealthCare Partners (OPTUM), Long Beach, CA
(Locum)

August 2012-
August 2020      CompHealth, Salt Lake City, UT
(Locum)

March 2011-
October 2012      VIPIMC, Fairfax, VA
Medical Director and Staff Practitioner

June 2004-
June 2012      Kaiser Permanente, Anaheim, CA
Contracted and Senior Staff Physician

March 1997-
June 2004      Patient First Medical Group, Glen Allen, VA & Baltimore, MD
Senior Physician and Assistant Medical Director

---

GAP Oct 1991- Nov 1996	Relocated to Southern California, worked full time in Private Practice, in outpatient, office, and hospital practice, while maintaining strong academic ties. Was among the first to recognize the efficacy of triple combination pharmacotherapy in halting the progression of Aids.
------------------------------	---

---

EXPERIENCE

1998- Current	Holistic Health Pursued personal interest in studies of holistic healing, chronic pain management, and treatment of psychosomatic disorders and chronic stress. Trained in the Zero Balancing protocol of structural integration, acupuncture application and manipulation therapy.
July 1983- August 1983	Medical Research Research project coordinator under Dr. Thomas B. Ducker, M.D. Chief of Neurosurgery, University of Maryland Hospital. Among the first to use computer data systems (Apple II) to track post-surgical outcomes.  Two undergraduate summer research projects: 1979- investigated carbohydrate metabolism in fibroblast tissue culture from Sudden Infant Death patients at the University of Maryland School of Medicine. 1978 — Pioneered the use of the automated ELISA technique investigating autoimmune humoral mechanisms in complement deficient animals at Cornell University School of Veterinary Medicine.

---

SCHOLASTIC EXPERIENCE

1981- 1985	Co-founded, organized, and participated in the Wholistic Medicine Group at School of Medicine. In April 1984 we sponsored the first annual Health Quest Expo of Baltimore.
1980	Elected president of the Chairman's Undergraduate Curriculum Committee for the departments of Chemistry and Biochemistry during my college years. Coordinated efforts between the department chairman, faculty, and students for yearly come revisions and curriculum requirements. Member Alpha Chi Sigma Honorary Chemical Fraternity.
1979	Elected Vice-President and later President in the International Student Council at the University of Maryland. My duties include coordinating educational efforts of the Office of international Student Affairs, organizing expos, ethnic exhibits, and debates.

---

AFFILIATIONS

American Medical Association, Arab-American Medical Association, American College of Physicians, AXE Honor Chemical fraternity.

---

REFERENCES

Upon Request