

Brandon Smith, D.C.

Objective

Recent Doctor of Chiropractic graduate from Logan University with hands-on experience in sports rehab, manual therapy, and integrative modalities. Seeking an associate position in a collaborative, patient-centered practice in Arizona where I can contribute clinical skills, a strong work ethic, and a passion for improving patient outcomes.

EDUCATION

Doctor of Chiropractic

Logan University — Chesterfield, MO

Graduation: August 2025

Bachelor of Science in Life Science

Logan University — Chesterfield, MO

Graduation: May 2023

EXPERIENCE

TROSS Spine and Performance – St. Peters, MO

Preceptorship | January 2025 – May 2025

- Independently managed personal patient caseload including evaluations and treatment

- Assisted in care of athletes using the VALD system and performance assessments
- Developed sport-specific rehab protocols and adjustment strategies

CAS Chiropractic and Medical Center – Phoenix, AZ

Preceptorship | May 2025 – August 2025

- Provided direct patient care including exams, treatment plans, and patient education
 - Utilized modalities such as Laser therapy, Shockwave, Graston, taping, and ART
 - Performed diversified adjustments, soft tissue therapy, and rehabilitation protocols
-

Licensure & Certifications

- Arizona Chiropractic License (Pending – Anticipated September 2025)
 - Dry Needling & Acupuncture Certification - in progress (Expected August 2025)
-

Techniques & Skills

- Diversified Adjusting | Motion Palpation | COX Flexion-Distrraction
- Dry Needling | Acupuncture | Cupping | Taping
- Soft Tissue Techniques: Proficient in ART (not certified), Graston
- Passive Modalities: Laser, Shockwave, E-Stim
- Rehabilitation-Focused Patient Management
- Excellent Communication, Team Collaboration, EHR Proficiency